Fun little Puzzle Arcade game where you find yourself controlling these little toons. One of the little dudes you control is Hate. Hate likes to push things away. The other guy is Love. He makes the little green blobs move towards him. You use this combo to make your way across the levels to press the mighty BIG RED BUTTON. Plus for steam is you also get cards to sell or trade. Good gaming everyone.. Good game. Lacking a few things the fact that Fev signed Marginet at the start of the season and he is not in the squad yet leigh signed Pala last week and he is in theirs, also Andy Bostock is a centre and has played prop for the last 2 years. #SquadUpdatePlease. Apart from that i think its a really good game much better than the 2013 version.. Its not a long visual novel and far from perfect but the art work is solid and you will want to finish and explore it all it ws good enough for that i enjoyed it.. I kind of wish I could give this one a middle thumb...

I did enjoy the game a lot but one thing I was quite disappointed in was how short the routes are. I wish there's be more to it, that's all. The plot was good so I think there could definitely be more content. I liked that you can choose different options and unlock future options with the personality you choose. The art was nice and pretty (though Rex's hair was flipped around... which way is it?), the music was good and just overall, I had a good time playing it. And the price isn't that bad either! So I can recommend this game to all who love some drama and vampires.. I can't say that it was anything special or unique, but it was a good enough game to keep me entertained for a couple hours.. It's a ok movie. I really wish they make Dead Space 4 someday.

Overpowered. The game is pretty nice, especially the story. It's a horror-HOG, which is a nice mix. I would rather like when the characters would talk and the speech wouldn't be written but in this game it doesn't really matter. There is not that much talking.. The game is vastly superior than it's descendant HOI IV by a large margin in terms of AI intelligence, troop management, and the overall difficulty it gives. Now if only the devs put the same AI intelligence in HOI IV combined with its graphic, then my life would be much better. I prefer micro-management sooo much more!. When I started playing this game, I didn't really think much about it, but it quickly sucked me in and scared the crap out of me. Very well done. There are a few jumpscare but they are very well executed and it's not gimmicky.

Stairs oozes atmosphere with its gorgeous graphics and sound design, I can't recommend it highly enough.

I've also made a Let's Play video of this game if you want to see more about it. <https://youtu.be/CyZk5T6NDF8>. Great game. Loads of fun and would recommend to everyone!. Noo support for xbox one controller (for windows) only xbox 360 controllers are supported :/. This kind of game will work on PC. Because What?

1. You need to be active always to protect your base
2. i might be playing some other game if your tribe needs you
3. if you're working you cant help your tribe
4. if you're outside you can't help your tribe
5. PC consumes many electricity so you need to close it sometimes which means your tribe needs you at that time
6. its a strategy game which means you need to put a lot of attention in the game which also means that you need to have access to your computer all the time. if you dont your base will never grow, and at some point your base will get attacked continuously without knowing.

For someone like me who have little time to play games why do i have to play strategy games in PC when you can other clones of it if you play it on your Phone and it consume little electricty and you can play it while resting andtaking a dump.

Thats why i recommend playing clones of this in your Phone.
its all the same anyway..

Sorry for my bad english grammar. im not a perfect person. A fun game with a wide variety of questions. From finding out someone\u2019s favourite colour to debating politics this game will get you talking to each other. You will also find out things you really didn't want to know or share!
